

St. Catherine of Siena 2018 Lenten Retreat

Saturday, February 17 8:30 am – 2:30 pm

From Encounter with Jesus Christ to Witness: Baptism & Eucharist as Grateful Ways of Living

- Encounter Jesus - Transformation...via the story of the Man Born Blind, Jesus washes away our hard-hearted blindness, freeing us to be grateful witnesses.
- Baptism – A Way of Life...Lent is a time of formation that transforms us to live our baptismal priesthood, to live as priest, prophet, and king.
- Eucharist – A Call to Mission...Encountering Jesus in the Eucharist frees me from my self-centeredness and joyfully sends me in self-sacrificing love to be the hands and feet of Jesus in a world starving for God.

- Jay Freel Landry will lead the retreat in Marian Hall.
- Please bring a bible and a bandana with you.
- Lunch is provided (a $5 donation is suggested to help cover lunch costs).
