

“Wonder” by Tricia Tetzlaff

I wonder what God has in mind with the madness.

I wonder what He'll do with this world full of sadness.

I wonder why He won't just fix it all now.

I wonder if grace is enough to endow.

And then I'm reminded like a bolt from the blue

That while I wonder, I'm a wonder too!

I am a wonder, beautifully and fearfully ME.

You are, too – wonderfully meant to be.

How do I know? Because I've been told

By God Himself in His Word of old.

My Creator is a Wonder, so His creation is, as well.

How wonderful is He? No tongue can tell.

He fully searches and knows you and me,

He loves what He knows, and He loves what He sees.

What a wonder it is to be loved by THE Wonder,
To have peace and calm when the world is asunder.
So, these lungs that He gave me will do me just fine,
And I'm grateful for them because they are mine.
And while I wonder why this journey can be so hard,
I can look at the wonder of the sky full of stars,
Stars that our wonderful God placed just so
In a universe of mystery that man cannot know.
We wonder as we wander, and we wander in despair
Till we remember that WE are wonders beyond compare.
So, if you ever wonder what's going on
In this world where so much is going wrong,
Remember that as you wonder, you are a wonder too,
Made by the wonderful Redeemer Who died for you.
